

Write-up Guidelines:

- You can write on any legal issues you wish.
- Before starting your write-up, find out the important laws concerning the topic and analyze the major points therein in the light of your topic.
- Avoid copy-paste mechanism or your write-up will be disqualified.
- Put footnotes where necessary. Try to follow international law journal standards in this regard. Without footnotes, your write-up will be disqualified and you would be asked to re-write your write-up.
- A preferred word limit for each article is in between 1000-2000 words.
- Send your write-up to our email: editor@bdlawdigest.org .
- Submit your write-up by 2016.
- Send us your photo that would be used in the biography section at the end of your write-up.
- At the end of your write-up, put your whole designation along with a bKash account number through which you want to receive your earnings.
